Printing

This grade is used mainly for commercial inkjet printing, it is universally printable with pigmented and dye water based inks. We recommend checking the suitability of this product on your individual printer before use.

To ensure a smudge free print and to maximise water resistance print with reduced ink saturation.

Due to the nature of this print technology, applications that require a high level of water resistance may need to be over varnished or over laminated to protect the printed image.

Due to the nature of this gloss coated product the top coating is "sticky" to touch - this is an inherent characteristic of the product.
